

Stores

Whether you live in the University dormitory or rent a room outside the campus, you will definitely need to purchase some household goods and perform some routine chores, such as paying bills, sending mail or parcels, or withdrawing cash for daily use. The following is a list of some useful information:

1. Convenience stores: convenience stores in Taiwan offer a wide range of services, and are open 24 hours a day. 7-11 and FamilyMart are the most common. You can buy light meals, drinks, some household goods, and pay for your water bill, electricity bill, cable TV bill and gas bill in convenient stores. You can also get tickets for trains, HRS, and concerts. ATMs are available in convenience stores. You can also send and receive mails and parcels.
2. Post Office: the nearest Post Office is located at No. 264, Dingciang Street. To get there, turn right from the Dingjhong Road entrance, and go straight along Lane 532.
3. Drugstore: Guan Hua Drogstore is just at the opposite right side of the Dingjhong Road entrance. Alternatively, you will find Sin Gao Cian Drugstore by turning left at Tiansiang Road. Drugstores in Taiwan offer a wide selection of health supplements, cosmetics and medicine. It is recommended to purchase these in Taiwan unless you have special needs.
4. Household goods mall: near the campus, you will find the most complete selection of goods at 21st Century Mall.
