How can university international officers best engage with international school college counsellors this year while travel continues to be restricted?

In this webinar, a panel of experienced international school college counsellors will explain the ways that they want to be contacted and supported by universities throughout the remainder of the 2020-2021 school year.

This webinar will include details of:

- How international school college counsellors are advising students with pathway planning right now
- What information and support international school college counsellors need from universities right now to assist pathway planning
- How university international officers can best engage with international school college counsellors when travel is not possible
- Feedback from international school college counsellors on the pathway plans of their students in light of pandemic and political challenges

This webinar is relevant for university international officers and representatives supporting international student undergraduate recruitment and admissions. Host of the webinar will be Diane Glass, Commercial Director of ISC Research.
