

ASUNTO. CALL FOR PAPERS: The International «Exceptional Woman» Conference: the 50 Year Anniversary Doctorate for Saint Teresa of Avila

Dear ICUSTA friends,

From April 12 to 15, 2021, The International «Exceptional Woman» Conference: the 50 Year Anniversary Doctorate for Saint Teresa of Avila”, which has been organized by the Catholic University Santa Teresa de Jesús de Ávila, together with the Diocese of Ávila, the Discalced Carmelites and the Eichstätt-Ingolstadt Catholic University (Germany).

The Conference will be held simultaneously in person and virtual mode. Also, it will be available in Spanish, English and German. All the information on this event can be found on this website: <http://congresosantateresadoctora.es/>.

This Conference aims to offer a space for scientific debate. Therefore, the event will include a dedicated space for the submission of original papers related with the themes covered in it:

- Spiritual theology. Mysticism in the academic context of the XX and XXI centuries.
- Women and Church.
- Connections, parallels and contrasts between Saint Teresa of Ávila and other Doctors of the Church.
- New Evangelization.

The presentation of the chosen academic papers and research can be done either in-person (in Avila) or virtually. Those interested in submitting their academic research to this Conference must take in consideration these dates:

Submission of summary: Due 10 January 2021

Submission of complete academic paper or research: Due 10 February 2021

Acceptance or rejection of submission: 10 March 2021

For more detailed information about the submission of paper, please visit the website: <http://congresosantateresadoctora.es/comunicaciones>

We remain at your disposal for whatever you need.

Kind regards,

Dr. David Sanz

Coordinator of the International «Exceptional Woman» Conference: the 50 Year Anniversary Doctorate for Saint Teresa of Avila